Dear Judge Stearns,

This letter is about my friend Donald Bing McGilvray who has really lent me a hand getting my life back on track. My name is Nick Velasquez. I wrote a letter two years ago when I met Don (Bing) at Spectrum House. He became my mentor and was helping me out with personal problems. This is a follow up.

Since that time I have successfully graduated from that program and got a job at Target, where I still work today. When I was still at Spectrum I worked at the Target in Westborough then got a shared apartment nearby. I lived there four months and Bing was the one I called when I needed to be talked out of returning to bad habits. He is a great counselor and would always steer me back on the right road.

In June 2006 I decided to transfer to the Target in Everett. One reason was to be closer to my family but another was to be closer to Bing. I felt if he were closer I would be less likely to do things I shouldn't. If I needed his help I knew he would be there. I got an apartment in East Boston and have lived there ever since. Bing and I meet regularly. We laugh and talk about the stress of life. He really helps me keep thinking the right way.

At Target I have become a Team Leader and workers are actually under my supervision. I pay my rent and bills on time. Once I get my finances righted I plan to finish my degree in Science, which I started at Mass Maritime. Bing has got me to believe that finishing my degree is the prize at the end of the rough road I have been on.

I can't really express in words how much Bing has helped me out. Any time I have needed anything he has been there for me. I have been crying on the phone and he was listening. When I was angry I would look to him for calm. Every time I needed a push to the right path he pushed me. I don't want to think where I would be without him today. Please accept this very serious and sincere letter.

Thank you,

Nicholas Velasquez

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Nicholas Velasquez and I have been in the program for four months. Don M. is my mentor, he was not my assigned mentor, but after being here for two weeks I asked him to be my mentor. I did not actually know how much Don was going to help me out. I have been through a lot in this house and have come very close to getting kicked out and Don has been there for me, fighting for me, and calming me down. At anytime I can go to him and talk to him and tell him everything I need to get off my chest. Don is just an all around good mentor the advice that he gives me is priceless.

Countless times I have told him things about my past that I would not tell anybody and not only does he give advice, but he listens. It is sad to see him go and hopefully we will keep in touch because I felt like Don was almost a father figure, my family is not in my life and Don knows. I have no one and he is the only one that is usually there for me. Don is also a good person to look up to, he is very intelligent and he knows that I have a brain on me too, he actually challenges me mentally so that I am not lazy and do not slip back to the old Nick. In conclusion Don has helped me out numerous times and I look up to him as a role model.
